The independent auditors' reports in respect of the financial statements of the Company/Group for the three years ended 30 September 2022 are unqualified. However, the independent auditors' audit report on the Group's financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022 includes a material uncertainty in respect of going concern. The audit opinion was not modified in respect of this matter. Such uncertainty was raised prior to the Placing and first tranche of Subscription, after which it has been addressed in full.

Pro Forma Financial Information

Not applicable. No pro forma financial information is included in this Document.

What are the key risks that are specific to the issuer?

- 3DBT, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, has a history of operating losses but has generated a small amount of revenue from its operations in the recent financial year. It is difficult to predict the generation of revenues and there is no guarantee that the Group will generate significant or any revenues in the foreseeable future.
- 3DBT is engaged in the research and development of the molecule Etsyl™ for the promotion of collagen production in cells from structural tissues (e.g., skin, cartilage, muscle, bone). Etsyl™ is a bioactive ingredient shown to be effective in vitro. However, there is no substantial evidence of its effectiveness in clinical trials. Furthermore, even if Etsyl™ is effective, this may not result in sufficient therapeutic or cosmetic improvement in humans to deliver commercial success for an ingredient of this nature.
- 3DBT is also engaged in the research and development of the City-mix™ medium supplements for the promotion of in vitro cell and tissue growth. The City-mix™ medium supplements have been shown to be effective for small-scale cultures of various cell lines in serum-containing, serum-reduced, and serum-free medium conditions. However, their effectiveness as universal serum substitutes or adjuvants in large-scale cultures remains to be assessed.
- All biotechnology and therapeutic research and development programmes carry technical risks, including the programme undertaken by 3DBT. These risks include those associated with delays, third party suppliers of research services or materials essential to the programmes, the unpredictability of the biological processes associated with cell and tissue culture and bioprocessing, and outcomes of in vitro, pre-clinical, and clinical testing. There is no guarantee that these technical risks can be effectively overcome, and a successful, approved product can be developed.
- 3DBT provides its products to third party businesses who may be subject to regulatory controls. It cannot guarantee that the Group's proposed development work will result in an efficacious treatment, or even if it does, that any tissue engineering products sold using the technology developed by 3DBT such as Etsyl™ will be approved by regulatory authorities as used by such businesses.

The shares trade under the symbol BSFAF.
What are the key risks that are specific to the securities?
Brief description of the most material risk factors to the securities contained in this Document	(a) A Standard Listing affords shareholders a lower level of regulatory protection than a Premium Listing. For example, the Company will not be appointing a sponsor to guide the Company in understanding and meeting its responsibilities under the Listing Rules in connection with certain matters. The application of the Listing Rules regarding significant transactions and related party transactions (which requires shareholder approval if a company has a Premium Listing) will not apply to the Company. In addition, the FCA and the London Stock Exchange will not have the authority to (and will not) monitor the Company's compliance with any of the Listing Rules which the Company has indicated that it intends to comply with on a voluntary basis, nor to impose sanctions in respect of any failure by the Company so to comply. (b) Any further issues of Ordinary Shares (including on exercise of options) may dilute investors' shareholdings. In particular, the Company may issue additional Ordinary Shares to raise additional equity capital. Pre-emption rights may have been waived. (c) Publicly traded securities from time to time experience significant price and volume fluctuations that may be unrelated to the operating performance of the companies that have issued them. The market price of the Ordinary Shares may fluctuate significantly in response to a number of factors, many of which are beyond the group's control, including: (i) changes in financial estimates by securities analysts; (ii) changes in market valuation of similar companies; (iii) announcements by the Company of significant contracts, acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint ventures or capital commitments; (iv) additions or departures of key personnel; (v) any shortfall in revenues or net income or any increase in losses or decrease in profits from levels expected by securities analysts; (vi) future issues or sales of Ordinary Shares; and (vii) stock market price and volume fluctuations. ## RISK FACTORS

Any investment in the Ordinary Shares is subject to a number of risks. Prospective investors should note that the risks relating to the Group's business, its industry and the Ordinary Shares summarised in the Summary of this Document are the risks that the Directors believe to be the most essential to an assessment by a prospective investor of whether to consider an investment in the Ordinary Shares. However, as the risks which the Group faces relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, prospective investors should consider not only the information on the key risks summarised in the Summary of this Document but also, among other things, the risks and uncertainties described below, together with all other information contained in this Document. Some of these risk factors apply to the conduct of business generally in the markets in which the Group operates, whilst others are specific to the Group. The categories below are not set out in any order of priority.

Additional risks and uncertainties currently unknown to the Company, or that it currently believes to be immaterial for taking investment decisions, may also have an adverse (or materially adverse) effect on the Group's business and cause the value of the securities of the Company to decline. If any combination of the following risk factors materialise, the Group's business, financial condition and/or operational performance could be materially adversely affected. In such case, the trading price of the Ordinary Shares may decline and potential investors may lose all or part of their investment. An investment in Ordinary Shares is only suitable for investors capable of evaluating the risks and merits of such an investment and who have sufficient resources to bear any loss which may result from the investment. Accordingly, prospective investors are recommended to obtain independent financial advice from an adviser authorised under FSMA (or another appropriately authorised independent professional adviser) who specialises in advising upon investments. Investors should consider carefully whether an investment in the Ordinary Shares is suitable for them in light of the information in this Document and their personal circumstances.

1. RISKS RELATING TO THE GROUP'S BUSINESS

There is no guarantee that the Group will generate significant or any revenue in the near future

3DBT has not generated significant revenues from its operations to date and has a history of operating losses. The generation of revenues is difficult to predict and there is no guarantee that the Group will generate significant or any revenues in the foreseeable future.

There are a number of operational, strategic and financial risks associated with pre-revenue companies. The Group will face risks frequently encountered by pre-revenue companies looking to generate revenue from bringing new products and devices to the market. There is also no guarantee that the intellectual property held will ultimately result in a commercially viable product. It is also possible that technical and/or regulatory hurdles could lengthen the time required for the delivery of such a testing product.

The Group's future growth will also depend on its ability to secure commercialisation partnerships on appropriate terms, to manage growth and to expand and improve operational, financial and management information, quality control systems and its commercialisation function on a timely basis, whilst at the same time maintaining effective cost controls. Any failure to expand and improve operational, financial and management information and quality control systems in line with the Group's growth could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks of Etsyl™ and City-mix™ supplements as novel bioactive ingredient but there is currently limited substantial evidence of its effectiveness in clinical trials

3DBT is engaged in the research and development of the novel molecule Etsyl™ for the promotion of collagen production in cells from structural tissues (e.g., skin, cartilage, muscle, bone). Etsyl™ is a novel bioactive ingredient shown to be effective in vitro, however there is currently limited evidence of its effectiveness in clinical trials. Furthermore, even if Etsyl™ is effective, this may not result in sufficient therapeutic or cosmetic improvement in humans to deliver commercial success for an ingredient of this nature.

If any of the above products prove to be ineffective is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Research and development risks carry technical risks, including the programme undertaken by 3DBT and there is no guarantee that these technical risks can be effectively overcome, and a successful, approved product can be developed

All biotechnology and therapeutic research and development programmes carry technical risks, including the programme undertaken by 3DBT. These risks include those associated with delays, third party suppliers of research services or materials essential to the programmes, the unpredictability of the biological processes associated with cell and tissue culture and bioprocessing, and outcomes of in vitro, pre-clinical, and clinical testing. There is no guarantee that these technical risks can be effectively overcome, and a successful, approved product can be developed. Any failure to overcome these technical risks could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Clinical trial, regulatory and commercialisation by 3DBT's business partners

Biotechnology and therapeutic programmes are subject to the most stringent regulatory oversight by various government agencies and ethics committees. Key regulatory focus areas are safety and efficacy, and clinical trials may be suspended or abandoned entirely in the event that regulatory agencies consider that continuation of these trials could expose participants to undue risks. Before obtaining regulatory approval of a product for a target indication, substantial evidence must be gathered in controlled clinical trials that the product candidate is safe and effective for use for that target indication. Similar approvals must be achieved from the relevant regulatory authorities in each country in which the product may be made available. 3DBT provides its products to third party businesses who may be subject to such regulatory controls. It cannot guarantee that the proposed development work will result in an efficacious treatment, or even if it does, that Etsyl™ will be approved by regulatory authorities as used by such businesses and there is no guarantee it will be successful in securing an appropriate licensing deal or achieving an alternative means of commercialising the technology.

Any failure by the licensees of the Group's products to achieve the necessary regulatory approvals (to the extent required) may impact the Group's ability to secure or to continue by securing an appropriate licensing deal or an alternative means of commercialising the technology which would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Regulatory environment in the future in respect of "tissue engineering" and other products

Any future changes in legislation or regulation, and in particular the regulations relating to tissue engineering, may have an adverse effect on the Group's operations and the returns available on an investment in the Company. The Group's ability to conduct business will be predicated on being in compliance with all licence requirements as specified by each relevant jurisdiction.

The Group may not continue to hold all of the necessary consents, approvals and licences required to conduct its business, and where new permissions are required, these may be delayed or not forthcoming. If any new approvals or licences are required in order for the Group to carry on its future business, the Group could face delays or prohibitions on the development, manufacture, sale or distribution of its products, which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, capital resources, results and/or future operations.

This Document has been prepared on the basis of current legislation, regulations, rules and practices as they affect the current business of the Group and the Directors' interpretation thereof. Such interpretation may not be correct.

Tissue Engineering and Cultivated Protein Market

The industry remains nascent and largely pre-revenue and lacks clarity in respect of its regulatory framework. Providers may also face increased lobbying efforts from the traditional livestock industry as it seeks to defend its market share from cultivated protein products.

Ownership and protection of intellectual property rights

The Group's ability to compete will depend in part, upon the successful protection of its intellectual property, in particular its patents and know-how. The Group seeks to protect its intellectual property through the filing of patent applications, as well as robust confidentiality obligations on its employees. Filing, prosecuting and defending patents in all countries throughout the world would be prohibitively expensive. It is possible that competitors will use the technologies in jurisdictions where the Group has not registered patents.

Any such claims are likely to be expensive to defend, and the other litigating parties may be able to sustain the costs of complex patent litigation more effectively than the Group can, because they have substantially greater resources. Moreover, even if the Group is successful in defending any infringement proceedings, it may incur substantial costs and divert management's time and attention in doing so, which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, capital resources, results and/or future operations. Further, disputes can often last for a number of years, and can be subject to lengthy appeals processes before any final resolution is achieved through the various different courts and/or tribunals. Furthermore, it cannot be guaranteed that a court will not rule against 3DBT were such claims to be defended.

Despite these precautions that may be taken by the Group to protect its intellectual technology and products, unauthorised third parties may attempt to copy, or obtain and use its technology and products. A third party may infringe upon the Group's intellectual property, release information considered confidential about the Group's intellectual property and/or claim technology that is registered to the Group. In addition, the Group may fail to discover infringement of its intellectual property, and/or any steps taken or that will be taken by it may not be sufficient to protect its intellectual property rights or prevent others from seeking to invalidate its intellectual property (for example, in response to a claim for infringement or where an attempt is made to "clear a path" for a new competing product) or block sales of its products by alleging a breach of their intellectual property. Third parties can bring material and arguments which the patent office granting the patent may not have seen at the time of granting the patent. Therefore, whilst a patent may be granted to the Group it could in the future be found by a court of law or by a patent office to be invalid or unenforceable or in need of further restriction. As a result of a validity challenge, a patent may be amended so as to narrow its scope to an extent that it may be more difficult to restrict activities of competitors. Applications filed by the Group in respect of new patents and trademarks may also not be granted or, if granted, may still be subject to opposition. In addition, there can be no guarantee that the patents or trademarks will be granted on a timely basis. Subject to certain time limits, there may, in certain circumstances, also be claims to entitlement, and/or compensation arising from contributions made, to granted patents by those who have assisted with the relevant research or project.

The Board intends to defend the Group's intellectual property vigorously, where necessary through litigation and other means. In the event that litigation is necessary in the future in order to enforce the Group's intellectual property rights, determine the scope and validity of proprietary rights of other companies, and/or defend claims of infringement or invalidity, it could require the Group to commit significant resources to pursue the protection of its intellectual property and there is no guarantee that the result of such litigation would result in a favourable outcome to the Group, or the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, may not be commercially meaningful or represent acceptable compensation in respect to the infringement. Any of these events may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, capital resources, results and/or future operations.

The Company is not currently aware of any such active or pending litigation risk.

Competition and the pace of development in Tissue Engineering

3DBT operates within the biotechnology sector, a complex area of the healthcare industry. Rapid scientific and technological change within the biotechnology sector could lead to other market participants creating approaches, products and services equivalent or superior to the diagnostic testing products and services than those to be offered by the Group, which could adversely affect the Group's performance and success. Better resourced competitors may be able to devote more time and capital towards the research and development process, which, in turn, could lead to scientific and/or technological breakthroughs that may materially alter the outlook or focus for markets in which the Group will operate.

If the Group is unable to keep pace with the changes in the biotechnology sector and in the wider healthcare industry, the demand for its platforms, associated products and services could fall, which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, capital resources, results and/or future operations. In addition, certain competitors of the Group may have significantly greater financial and human resource capacity and, therefore, better manufacturing capability or sales and marketing expertise. New companies with alternative technologies and products may also emerge. Any of these events may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, capital resources, results and/or future operations.

Attraction and retention of key management and employees

The successful operation of the Group will depend partly upon the performance and expertise of its current and future management and employees. The loss of the services of particular members of the Group's key management, particularly Dr Che Connon, or the inability to identify, attract and retain a sufficient number of suitably skilled and qualified employees may have a material adverse effect on the Group. Any future expansion of the Group may require considerable management time which may, in turn, inhibit management's ability to conduct the day to day business of the Company.

Future product liability risks

The Group's future business may expose it to potential product liability and indemnity risks. There can be no assurance that the necessary insurance cover will be available to the Group at a commercially acceptable cost or that, in the event of any claim, the level or extent of insurance carried by the Group now or in the future will be adequate, or that a product liability or other claim would not materially and adversely affect the business of the Group.

Lack of manufacturing process for its products

3DBT currently has no manufacturing process for its products. Any future manufacturing process would be outsourced to a partner specialising in manufacture. These arrangements usually provide for an adequate volume of manufacturing capability. No assurance can be given that a future manufacturing partner (i) can be found to provide a product on commercially acceptable terms and (ii) will achieve and sustain the production yields required to meet the Group's future customers' demand for the Group's products. This could have a material and adverse effect on the Group's business.

2. RISKS RELATING TO THE INDUSTRY

The Group may face competition in a rapidly evolving market

The Group may face an increasing amount of competition in the future as the market expands, making entry to it more attractive. The entry into the market of strong, well- funded competitors, could have a negative impact on sales volumes or profit margins achieved by the Company in the future.

3. RISKS RELATING TO AN INVESTMENT IN ORDINARY SHARES

The proposed Standard Listing of the Ordinary Shares will afford investors a lower level of regulatory protection than a Premium Listing

Application will be made for the new Ordinary Shares in connection with the Additional Fundraising Securities and Financial PR Shares to be admitted to a Standard Listing on the Official List. A Standard Listing will afford investors in the Company a lower level of regulatory protection than that afforded to investors in a company with a Premium Listing, which is subject to additional obligations under the Listing Rules. For example, the ongoing obligations applicable to a company with a Premium Listing set out in chapter 9 of the Listing Rules do not apply to Ordinary Shares admitted to a Standard Listing. Further details are set out in the section headed "Consequences of a Standard Listing" of this Document.

Ordinary Shares may not be a suitable investment

The Ordinary Shares may not be a suitable investment for all the recipients of this Document. Before making a final decision, investors are advised to consult an appropriate independent investment adviser authorised under FSMA who specialises in advising on the acquisition of shares and other securities. The value of the Ordinary Shares and the income received from them can go down as well as up and investors may get back less than their original investment.

There may be no or very limited public trading market for the Ordinary Shares, notwithstanding the Group's intention to be admitted to trading on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange. A market for the Ordinary Shares may not develop which would adversely affect the liquidity and price of the Ordinary Shares.

The Issue Price may not be indicative of the market price of the Existing Ordinary Shares or the new Ordinary Shares following Admission.

Although the Company has applied to the FCA for Admission of the new Ordinary Shares in connection with the Additional Fundraising Securities and Financial PR Shares to the Official List and has applied to the London Stock Exchange for Admission of the Ordinary Shares to trading on the London Stock Exchange's Main Market for listed securities, there is no assurance that an active trading market for the Ordinary Shares will develop or, if developed, will be sustained following Admission. If an active trading market does not develop or is not maintained, the liquidity and trading price of the Ordinary Shares could be adversely affected. Even if an active trading market develops, the market price of the Existing Ordinary Share or new Ordinary Shares may fall below the Issue Price. As a result of fluctuations in the market price of an Ordinary Share, investors may not be able to sell their Ordinary Shares at or above the Issue Price, or at all.

Investors will experience a dilution of their percentage ownership if the Fundraising Warrants are exercised

The Company has granted the Fundraising Warrants as part of the Fundraising, upon full exercise of which would result in an issue of up to a maximum of 8,926,352 new Ordinary Shares following Admission. Upon exercise of such Fundraising Warrants, Shareholders will be subject to dilution of their existing percentage ownership in the Company. The principal terms and conditions of the Fundraising Warrants, subject to the passing of Resolutions at the General Meeting and effective on Admission, are summarised below:

- (a) 326,352 Broker Warrants. Each Broker Warrant entitles the warrant holder to subscribe for one new Ordinary Share at the Exercise Price at any time up and until the third anniversary of Admission. The Broker Warrants are non-transferable.
- (b) 8,158,824 Placing Warrants. Each Placing Warrant entitles the warrant holder to subscribe for one Ordinary Share at the Exercise Price per share at any time up and until the third anniversary of Admission. The Placing Warrants are not transferable.
- (c) 441,176 Subscription Warrants. Each Subscription Warrant entitles the warrant holder to subscribe for one Ordinary Share at the Exercise Price at any time up and until the third anniversary of Admission. The Subscription Warrants are not transferable.

Assuming that there is no change to the Enlarged Share Capital and all conditions are met, the Fundraising Warrants will represent up to approximately 7.95% of the Fully Diluted Share Capital (including the issue of the Second Subscription Shares and Financial PR Share).

The price of Ordinary Shares may fluctuate

The market price of the Ordinary Shares may fluctuate significantly in response to a number of factors or events, in addition to those referred to in this section headed "Risk Factors". These factors may not be directly related to the Group's actual performance and/or beyond the Group's control. These may, without limitation, include:

- (a) the number of Ordinary Shares publicly traded given the market capitalisation of the Company;
- (b) market's reaction to the Company's announcements, press releases, and/or the Group's filings with regulatory authorities;
- (c) the entering into of significant contracts by the Group;
- (d) significant sales or purchases by any Shareholders in a personal capacity connected or not connected to the Group;
- (e) acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint ventures or capital commitments involving the Group or its competitors;
- (f) additions or departures of key personnel to or from the Group;
- (g) changes in financial estimates or recommendations by securities analysts who track the Ordinary Shares or the shares of other companies in the same sector;
- (h) the operating and financial performance of other companies that investors may consider comparable to the Group;
- (i) changes in the global political, economic and/or financial conditions; and
- (j) changes in environmental impact sentiment.

Ordinary Shares eligible for future sale may have an effect on the market price

The Company cannot predict what effect, if any, future sales of Ordinary Shares, or the availability of Ordinary Shares for future sale, will have on the market price of Ordinary Shares. Sales of substantial amounts of Ordinary Shares in the public market following Admission, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of Ordinary Shares and may make it more difficult for investors to sell their Ordinary Shares at a time and price which .

Effect of exchange rate fluctuations

The Ordinary Shares are, and any dividends to be paid in respect of them will be, denominated in pounds sterling. An investment in Ordinary Shares by an investor whose principal currency is not pounds sterling exposes the investor to foreign currency exchange rate risk. Any depreciation of pounds sterling in relation to such foreign currency will reduce the value of the investment in the Ordinary Shares or any dividends in foreign currency terms and any appreciation of pounds sterling will increase the value in foreign currency terms.

Future issue of securities may be affected by a change in regulation

In May 2023 the FCA circulated a consultation paper CP23/10. The consultation paper considered, amongst other things, a replacement of standard and premium listing share categories with a single listing category for equity shares in commercial companies (ESCC) and retention of the sponsor regime with certain modifications. The proposed new listing regime may increase burdens on standard listed companies who are not currently subject to a significant transaction regime, although they may make disclosures related to transactions under the Market Abuse Regulation (MAR). As such, in the future the Company as a standard listed company may be placed with a heavier regulatory burden and subject to more onerous disclosure requirements.

4. RISKS RELATING TO TAXATION

The attention of potential investors is drawn to Part V (Taxation) of this Document. The tax rules, and tax treaties, including stamp duty provisions, and their interpretation relating to an investment in the Group, may change during the life of the Group and may alter the tax benefit of an investment made by the Group.

The levels of, and reliefs from, taxation may change. The tax reliefs referred to in this Document are those that are currently available and their value may depend on investors' individual circumstances. Any change in the Group's tax status or the tax applicable to holding new Ordinary Shares or in taxation legislation or its interpretation, could affect the value of the investments held by the Group, its ability to provide returns to Shareholders and/or alter the post-tax returns to Shareholders. Statements in this Document concerning taxation of the Group and its investors are based on current tax law and practice which is subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. Shareholders should note that the tax legislation of the country in which they are resident and of the Company's country of incorporation may have an impact on the income received from the new Ordinary Shares.

There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to make returns for Shareholders in a tax-efficient manner

It is intended that the Company will structure the group, including any company or business acquired, to maximise returns for Shareholders in as fiscally efficient a manner as is practicable. The Company has made certain assumptions regarding taxation. However, if these assumptions are not correct, taxes may be imposed with respect to the Company's assets, or the Company may be subject to tax on its income, profits, gains or distributions (either on a liquidation and dissolution or otherwise) in a particular jurisdiction or jurisdictions in excess of taxes that were anticipated. This could alter the post-tax returns for Shareholders (or Shareholders in certain jurisdictions). The level of return for Shareholders may also be adversely affected. Any change in laws or tax authority practices could also adversely affect any post-tax returns of capital to Shareholders or payments of dividends (if any, which the Company does not envisage the payment of, at least in the short to medium term). In addition, the Company may incur costs in taking steps to mitigate any such adverse effect on the post-tax returns for Shareholders.

5. OTHER RISKS

Investors may not be able to realise returns on their investment in Ordinary Shares within a period that they would consider to be reasonable

Investments in Ordinary Shares may be relatively illiquid. The Company on Admission will have a limited number of Shareholders and this factor may contribute to both infrequent trading in the Ordinary Shares on the London Stock Exchange and to volatile Ordinary Share price movements. Investors should not expect that they will necessarily be able to realise their investment in Ordinary Shares within a period that they would regard as reasonable. Accordingly, the Ordinary Shares may not be suitable for short-term investment. Admission should not be taken as implying that there will be an active trading market for the Ordinary Shares. Even if an active trading market develops, the market price for the Ordinary Shares may fall below the Issue Price.

Forward Looking Statements

This Document includes statements that are, or may be deemed to be, ‘forward looking statements’. In some cases, these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, including the terms ‘targets’, ‘believes’, ‘estimates’, ‘anticipates’, ‘expects’, ‘intends’, ‘may’, ‘will’, ‘should’, or, in each case, their negative or other variations or comparable terminology. They appear in a number of places throughout this Document and include statements regarding the intentions, beliefs or current expectations of the Company and the Board concerning, inter alia: (i) the Company's objective, financing and business strategies, results of operations, financial condition, capital resources, prospects, capital appreciation of the new Ordinary Shares and dividends; and (ii) future deal flow and implementation of active management strategies. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. The Company's actual performance, results of operations, financial condition and the development of its financing strategies may differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this Document. In addition, even if the Company's actual performance, results of operations, financial condition, distributions to Shareholders and the development of its financing strategies are consistent with the forward-looking statements contained in this Document, those results or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in subsequent periods.

Prospective investors should carefully review the section headed "Risk Factors" of this Document for a discussion of additional factors that could cause the Group's actual results to differ materially, before making an investment decision. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing appearing under the heading 'Forward-looking statements' constitutes a qualification of the working capital statement set out in paragraph 11 of Part VI (Additional Information) of this Document.

Forward-looking statements contained in this Document apply only as at the date of this Document. Subject to any obligations under the Listing Rules, the Market Abuse Regulation, the Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules and the Prospectus Regulation Rules, the Company undertakes no obligation publicly to update, or review any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

CONSEQUENCES OF A STANDARD LISTING

Applications will be made to the FCA and London Stock Exchange for the new Ordinary Shares (issued in connection with the Additional Fundraising Securities and the Financial PR Shares) to Standard Listing (pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, which sets out the requirements for Standard Listings) and to trading on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange.

The Existing Ordinary Shares are, and any new Ordinary Shares will be listed under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules (Standard Listing (shares)) and as a consequence a significant number of the Listing Rules will not apply to the Company. Shareholders will therefore not receive the full protection of the Listing Rules associated with a Premium Listing.

Listing Principles 1 and 2 as set out in Listing Rule 7.2.1 of the Listing Rules also apply to the Company, and the Company must comply with such Listing Principles. Premium Listing Principles 1 to 6 as set out in Listing Rule 7.2.1AR of the Listing Rules do not apply to the Company.

However, while the Company has a Standard Listing, it is not required to comply with the provisions of inter alia:

- Chapter 8 of the Listing Rules regarding the appointment of a sponsor to guide the Company in understanding and meeting its responsibilities under the Listing Rules in connection with certain matters. The Company has not and does not intend to appoint such a sponsor in connection with the Placing and Admission.
- Chapter 9 of the Listing Rules relating to the ongoing obligations for companies admitted to the Premium List, which therefore does not apply to the Company.
- Chapter 10 of the Listing Rules relating to significant transactions. It should be noted therefore that the Acquisition did not require Shareholder consent.
- Chapter 11 of the Listing Rules regarding related party transactions. Nevertheless, the Company will not enter into any transaction which would constitute a 'related party transaction' as defined in Chapter 11 of the Listing Rules without specific prior approval of the Independent Directors.
- Chapter 12 of the Listing Rules regarding purchases by the Company of its Ordinary Shares. In particular, the Company has not adopted a policy consistent with the provisions of Listing Rules 12.4.1 and 12.4.2.
- Chapter 13 of the Listing Rules regarding the form and content of circulars to be sent to Shareholders.

It should be noted that the FCA will not have authority to (and will not) monitor the Company's compliance with any of the Listing Rules which the Company has indicated herein that it intends to comply with on a voluntary basis, nor to impose sanctions in respect of any failure by the Company so to comply. However, the FCA would be able to impose sanctions for non-compliance where the statements regarding compliance in this Document are themselves false, misleading or deceptive.

PART I
INFORMATION ON THE GROUP

1. INTRODUCTION

The Company was incorporated and registered in England and Wales on 5 September 2018 with the objective of creating value for its shareholders through an acquisition-led growth strategy with a focus on acquiring businesses in the biotechnology, innovative marketing and e-commerce sectors. The Company's ordinary shares were admitted to trading on the Official List on 26 July 2019 when it raised £767,000 via a placing at 5 pence per ordinary share. On 16 May 2022, the Company completed its acquisition of 3DBT, which was the first acquisition of the Company and as such constituted a reverse takeover for the purposes of the Listing Rules 5.6.4. The Group's intention is to continue to grow through a combination of organic growth and, where possible, selective acquisitions.

2. FUNDRAISING

2.1 Background to and reasons for the Fundraising

As described in the announcements of the Company dated 29 March 2023, 12 April 2023 and 14 April 2023, the Company raised approximately £2.9 million by way of Fundraising, comprising the Placing of 16,317,648 Placing Shares and the Subscription of 882,352 Subscription Shares at the Exercise Price of 17 pence per share.

First tranche of Subscription and Placing Shares

The Subscription was structured in two tranches. The first tranche consisting of 617,613 Ordinary Shares were allotted and issued pursuant to the then Company's existing authorities, in addition to the Placing Shares, and were admitted to the standard segment of the Official List of the Financial Conduct Authority and to trading on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange on 14 April 2023.

Additional Fundraising Securities and Financial PR Shares

The second tranche of Subscription consisting of 264,739 Second Subscription Shares, together with the 100,000 Financial PR Shares, will be allotted and issued following the publication of this Document. It should be noted that other than the Resolutions proposed to be passed at the General Meeting, no further resolutions are required to be passed by the shareholders in order to issue the Second Subscription Shares and the Financial PR Shares.

As part of the Fundraising,

- (a) placees have been granted one warrant for every two Placing Shares purchased, being 8,158,824 Placing Warrants in aggregate;
- (b) Subscribers have been granted one warrant for every two Subscription Shares subscribed for, being 441,176 Subscription Warrants in aggregate; and
- (c) Shard Capital has been granted 326,352 Broker Warrants.

Each Placing Warrant, Subscription Warrant and Broker Warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for one Ordinary Share at the price of 34 pence per share at any time up and until the third anniversary of Admission. Ordinary Shares pursuant to exercise of any Fundraising Warrants will be allotted and issued following the publication of this Document. Other than the Resolutions proposed to be passed at the General Meeting, no further resolutions are required to be passed by the shareholders in order to issue Ordinary Shares upon exercise of any Fundraising Warrants.

2.2 Use of Proceeds

Given the rapid growth of 3DBT, the Company has applied the net proceeds from Placing and the first tranche of Subscription to provide the Group with working capital necessary to support its organic growth through:

- (a) the continued development of the Company's cultivated meat fillets, aimed at demonstrating the effectiveness of its patented City-Mix™ technology which has a number of advantages over traditional media used in the production of cultivated meat;
- (b) the ongoing expansion of 3DBT's City-Mix™ production capacity to support new business opportunities;

- (c) serving new global target markets, including biotech companies, such as those working in gene therapy, stem cells and regenerative medicine; and life sciences companies;
- (d) further development of 3DBT's lab-grown leather products; and
- (e) the advancement of 3DBT's cornea proposition, finalising the process for full thickness cornea production.

The issue of the Second Subscription Shares and the Financial PR Shares is expected to raise gross proceeds of £62,006. In the event that the Fundraising Warrants are exercised in full, the Company will receive gross proceeds of £3,034,960. The total costs, charges and expenses payable by the Company in connection therefrom are estimated to be approximately £60,000 (excluding VAT). The net proceeds from the issue of the Second Subscription Shares, the Financial PR Shares and Ordinary Shares pursuant to exercise of any Fundraising Warrants are intended to be used for the Group's working capital to continue to support its organic growth as mentioned above.

2.3 Financial Impact

Had the issue of the Additional Fundraising Securities and the Financial PR Shares taken place as at the last balance sheet date, being 31 March 2023, the effect on the balance sheet would have been an increase in cash and cash equivalents of approximately £3.08 million.

3. HISTORY OF 3DBT AND BUSINESS MODEL

3.1. History

3DBT is a biotechnology company and originally a spin-out from the University of Newcastle upon Tyne (or Newcastle University). It was founded by Dr Che Connon and Dr Ricardo Gouveia and was incorporated in England & Wales as a private company on 8 November 2018. Professor Che Connon has over 20 years' experience in extracellular matrix biology and is currently a professor of tissue engineering at the University of Newcastle. He has successfully spun-out three biotechnology companies. Dr Ricardo Gouveia is a Harvest Research Fellow and has expertise in cell biology and biomaterials.

3DBT has developed a propriety platform technology termed "tissue templating" that facilitates the production of a variety of animal tissue types for multiple uses, commonly referred to as "tissue engineering". Tissue templating technology is bio-inspired, i.e., its methodology has been learnt by careful study of how cells behave in their natural environs (principally undertaken at Newcastle University with UK government funding). This bio-inspired approach differs from traditional tissue engineering approaches as it harnesses the power of cells to grow and create the entire tissue and does not involve the use of synthetic scaffolds.

The intellectual property of 3DBT relates, in part, to the ways cells receive instructions from their external environment and the subsequent arrangement of these cells as well as the highly ordered extracellular material the same cells deposit. Together, these processes create a functional tissue structure resembling down to the nanoscopic level the tissue from which the original cells were taken, e.g., cornea, muscle or skin. During the research and development of these 3DBT tissue constructs, significant and unexpected discoveries were made in the form of soluble components that sped up the tissue templating process. Human tissue growth in nature can take months or years to fully form, but 3DBT has found potential ways to accelerate this in the lab using patented (application stage) soluble factors. The Board believes that these potent cell and tissue forming factors could be stand-alone products for 3DBT, acting as early revenue streams ahead of the longer-term plans for the 3DBT tissue constructs. Therefore, the City-Mix™ serum-free media and Etsyl™ active ingredient for future skin care product lines were created.

City-Mix™ is a plant-based environmentally-friendly direct replacement to animal-derived or synthetic proteins which are both expensive and commonly used in the culture of animal cells. 3DBT's City-Mix™ products offer a cost-effective animal-free alternative to animal serum for the expansion of important cell types. Etsyl™ is another supplement. However, it stimulates collagen production from cells and in the Board's opinion, holds great promise as an active ingredient in high-end skin care products.

3.2. 3DBT's intellectual property portfolio

3DBT has undertaken research and development activities to date that have resulted in three strands of intellectual property being developed, with each strand having a different sectoral focus, timeline to development and ultimately, revenue. 3DBT has filed patent applications in the following sectors:

- 3.2.1. Serum-free media: 3DBT's City-mix™ is a serum-free media for culturing muscle and fat cells (by way of an animal-free process) which can be used for lab-grown meat and leather production;

3.2.2. Skin Care Products: Lipopeptide Etsyl™ is a product that actively increases collagen production in human skin cells. It can be used as an active ingredient in cosmetic skin cream and other topical dermatological products;

3.2.3. Tissue templating applications (using a platform to grow different tissues with natural structure and function), including:

- (a) Human skin substitutes: native-like human skin substitutes, for clinical and industrial applications;
- (b) Substitute cornea: a potential corneal substitute which is made from human cells in Serum-Free Media. Its purpose is to function as a comparable and a direct replacement to human corneal donor tissue;
- (c) Cultured meat: highly structured muscle tissue for use in the cultivated protein market produced through the cultivation of animal cells; and
- (d) Lab-grown leather: lab-grown leather which is an alternative source of animal leather.

An overview of 3DBT’s intellectual property was included at the sub-paragraphs headed “3DBT’s intellectual property portfolio” of Part VII of the April 2022 Prospectus from pages 27 to 30 (save for the Material Transfer Agreement with Natural Pharmaceuticals Australia on page 29 which has ended), which are incorporated by reference into this Document, modified by any updates on the recent development of 3DBT disclosed under the sub-paragraph headed “IP and patents” and the paragraph headed “Business Overview and Strategy” below in this Part I (Information of the Group) of this Document.

IP and patents

Research activities to date have resulted in the following patents being filed in connection with 3DBT’s tissue templating technology. The filed patents are in connection with the production of structured tissues, rates of collagen production and serum-free media supplements. Patents were also filed in connection with 3DBT’s tissue templating technology for the fabrication of native-like human skin substitutes and clinical, cosmetic, and industrial applications. This technology allows for the defining of the size, shape, and/or composition of skin substitutes according to particular needs and specifications.

The applications previously filed by 3DBT as disclosed in Part VII of the April 2022 Prospectus have been published, details of which are set out below:

Patents generally have a 20-year life and extending protection through additional filings may provide a further potential extension.

3.3. Business Model

3DBT's business model has the objective to develop intellectual property around each of the above applications, and to then licence out the patent-protected intellectual property to manufacturers, wholesalers and distributors of the end products. 3DBT currently manufactures product for serum-free media and an active ingredient for skin care products. With regards to the tissue templating applications, 3DBT will not manufacture any of the products itself, thereby intending to keep its capital requirements to a minimum and remove associated manufacturing, production, distribution and retail to risks from its business model.

Since its acquisition of 3DBT in May 2022, the Company has been focusing on commercialisation, selling two main products: (i) CityMix, a media supplement for cell growth both in cultivated meat and pharmaceutical application, and (ii) Etsyl™, an additive to skin cream in the cosmetics industry. The Group has been seeking agreements with different commercial parties for the above applications. Skin and corneal products would likely be limited by their applications whereas leather and meat products would be limited by geographic location. The Board believes that the reason is that skin and corneas, as medical devices, would play into large international medical device companies but could also be used for different clinical indications. Cultured meat and leather are expected to be sought after by smaller companies with limited geographic reach, but are likely to have the same application i.e. food or material to manufacture.

4. BUSINESS OVERVIEW AND STRATEGY

Since the Company's acquisition of 3DBT, significant progress has been made towards the Company's strategic objectives, i.e. creating value for its shareholders through an acquisition-led growth strategy with a focus on acquiring businesses in the biotechnology, innovative marketing and e-commerce sectors. 3DBT has been growing rapidly as a pioneering UK-based clinical and cellular agriculture company. It has developed 2 products in serum-free media and skin care plus a proprietary platform technology termed "tissue templating" that facilitates the production of a variety of animal tissue types for multiple uses, commonly referred to as "tissue engineering". Tissue templating technology is bio-inspired, i.e. its methodology has been learnt by careful study of how cells behave in their natural environs. Further details of the recent development of 3DBT are set out below:

Successful Cultivated Meat Test at a Technical Event

3DBT has successfully produced two full-scale fillets of cultivated pork, as well as a cultivated pork strip, which were tested at a technical event on 25 May 2023. The cultivated pork fillets each measured 5cm in diameter, 3cm in height, and circa 60g in weight, making them similar in size to traditional 2-ounce tenderloin steaks. The cultivated pork strip measured circa 30cm in length and 1cm in diameter, demonstrating the effectiveness of the Company's intellectual property in being applied to produce meat as a consumer-ready, 'pre-sliced' form for cooking purposes.

The meat was cooked and presented formally by a trained, independent chef, utilising an array of cooking methods. The chef's involvement was key to demonstrating that cultivated meat could be handled and cooked in the same way as traditional meat. The study participants that tasted the cultivated meat provided very positive feedback in terms of its taste and texture.

City-Mix™ Commercial Progress

The Company successfully started to implement its go-to market strategy in order to progress a number of commercial opportunities and help bring its flagship City-Mix™ products to market. 3DBT's City-Mix™ is a patented non-toxic culture media supplement that acts as an effective "cell booster." It is composed of a specific formulation that facilitates a process called macromolecular crowding which has a number of advantages over traditional media used in the production of cultivated meat. These include higher production yields; the need for fewer expensive supplements and the elimination of animal-derived serum, such that no animals suffer in the production process. Additionally, City-Mix™ removes the need for conventional plant-based scaffolds, blends and fillers, as have been universally adopted by the industry to date to ensure structural integrity of cultivated tissue products.

3DBT has engaged with over 70 cellular agriculture and biotech companies, 26 of which have progressed to new business opportunities. From these 26 business opportunities, 18 product evaluations are underway with a view to incorporating City-Mix™ into cultured media formulations. A further three companies have completed successful evaluations and began purchasing the product in April / May 2023 with an additional cultured meat company including City-Mix™ in their production media formulation but yet to purchase.

As well as cellular agriculture companies, 3DBT has progressed two other key target markets. These include biotech companies, such as those working in gene therapy, stem cells and regenerative medicine; and life sciences companies and academia, which research the above disciplines. Two product evaluations are currently underway with a view to creating efficiencies in serum free media formulations for stem cell applications.

In March 2023, 3DBT entered into direct sales agreements with two lab-grown meat companies and one biotech company. Although these are initial sales and revenues which are expected to be relatively small at the early stage, they mark an important milestone for the Group providing an excellent reference while highlighting the quality of its product.

The Company has partnered with Benzol - a world leader in the science distribution sector - to help commercialise and act as a distributor of City-Mix™ across Germany. Biozol is the leading distributor for some of the leading global pharmaceutical companies, engaging with 14,000 companies across the industry. This partnership forms part of the Company's strategy to use an indirect sales model for the biotech and life sciences markets and partner with appropriate distributors across Europe and the US.

3DBT has also engaged directly with one of the leading global suppliers to pharmaceutical companies. The Fortune 500 company is a world leader in providing solutions for cellular analysis and synthetic biology. The Company has currently purchased several vials of City-Mix™ for evaluation to be used in its media formulation and help reduce costs.

Meanwhile, one of the world's leading stem cell companies, which specialises in converting stem cells into fat tissue, is also evaluating the use of City-Mix™ in its production process to help increase efficacy and reduce costs. If successful, the partnership will provide a significant opportunity for scalable volume production of City-Mix™.

In order to be ready to serve these opportunities, the Company has now more than doubled its lab production space to 2,400 sq. ft and validated its City-Mix™ production and quality control processes. Current production capacity is 2,500 litres per year, equivalent to 600,000 litres of end product in the diluted form in which it is used, and 3DBT will continue to scale production appropriately.

Sales Channels

3DBT plans to roll-out a web-based sales channel for City-Mix™ in the coming months to facilitate an e-commerce route to market. This is an additional approach to penetrating both cultivated meat and biopharma markets and will include links to suppliers, FAQs, companion documentation and datasheets. The Company also intends to open an office in Hong Kong to capture the huge emerging opportunity in China.

In addition, 3DBT has made positive progress in building its indirect sales network, which extends the reach for biotech and life sciences markets, with the Company securing its first distribution partner, Abacus dx., which is owned by Diploma PLC and covers Australia, New Zealand and Fiji. 3DBT has also signed BIOZOL Diagnostica Vertrieb GmbH as a European distribution partner in the German speaking regions of Europe namely, Germany, Austria and Switzerland, which will further expand its geographic reach.

Lab-grown Leather Products Progress

Following the successful expansion of its laboratory and incubator capacity, 3DBT has bio-engineered samples of animal skin tissue, measuring up to 10 by 10 cm in size and between 0.5 mm to 1 mm in thickness, being 100% animal tissue. The production of tissues with such thickness represents an important milestone in the industry and the progress being made is testament to the accumulative knowledge being secured by the team as it successfully advances its tissue engineering activities. Various properties of the samples will be analysed to evaluate their potential as a substitute starting material for traditional leather products.

In order to meet this opportunity, the Company has engaged with a number of companies within the leather industry in the UK and abroad regarding potential Proof of Concept engagements to establish the suitability of the skin product as a sustainable, ethical alternative to traditional leather goods. This has led to 3DBT signing its first contract with a leather company for them to test and develop lab-grown animal skin for leather production in the first half of the year of 2023. Once suitability is established, the Company will seek to develop plans to scale-up production of 3DBT animal skin products.

Innovation Award Win

3DBT was voted 'University Spinout of the Year' at the North East Innovation Awards ceremony, a competition organised by the Innovation SuperNetwork on 10 May 2023. The award recognises companies spun out of universities that are making an impact in terms of innovation, ground-breaking research or furthering a specific sector or technology. 3DBT was recognised for its lab-grown animal tissue products, which were described as an inspired, transformative innovation with world-leading levels of functionality.

Admittance to trading on OTCQB

The Company's Ordinary Shares were admitted to trading on the OTCQB Venture Market in the United States on 24 May 2023 under the symbol BSFAF, providing access to one of the world's largest investment markets, and thereby creating the potential for greater liquidity in the Company's shares.

To maximise the benefits, the Company undertook a US investor roadshow between 26 June 2023 and 30 June 2023, and has appointed a US agency to manage its Investor Relations in the region. In addition, the Company attended the Future Food Tech Summit in New York on 27 June 2023 and 28 June 2023 as part of its strategy to raise its profile amongst prospective partners and investors. The initial response from US investors has been positive.

Outlook and Strategy

Technical milestones have included the Group producing the UK's first 100% cultivated steak, an enormous step forward for its industry, as well as skin products thick enough to be used to make leather goods. Commercial progress has been demonstrated through the numerous partnerships and proof-of-concepts as well as the signing of the Group's first contracts, while expanding its sales channels.

The Board continues to evaluate potential acquisition opportunities in line with the Company's strategy to acquire a suite of technologies that underpins the development of tissue templating for corneas, meat and leather. To date, several opportunities have been identified and internal assessment is progressing.

Activity has continued apace and the Company has no intention of slowing, given the availability of many opportunities and the huge global potential for its innovative technology. The Group has a strong balance sheet which will support its well-defined growth strategy. Save as disclosed in this Document, (a) there has been no significant change in the financial performance of the Group since 31 March 2023, the date to which the Group's last unaudited financial information were published; and (b) there are not any known trends, demands, commitments or events that are reasonably likely to have a material effect on the Company's prospect for the financial year ending 30 September 2023.

5. REGULATORY ENVIRONMENT

Biotechnology and therapeutic programmes are subject to stringent regulatory oversight by various government agencies and ethics committees, with the key regulatory focus areas being safety and efficacy. Clinical trials may be suspended or abandoned entirely in the event that regulatory agencies consider that continuation of these trials could expose participants to undue risks. Before obtaining regulatory approval of a product for a target indication, substantial evidence must be gathered in controlled clinical trials that the product candidate is safe and effective for use for that target indication. Similar approvals must be achieved from the relevant regulatory authorities in each country in which the product may be made available.

The Company is not aware of any governmental, economic, fiscal, monetary or political policies or factors that have materially affected the Group's business, and the Directors are not aware of any that could do so in the immediate future. As the Group is currently selling serum free media and collagen stimulating molecules to add to a final product, it is not currently subject to any regulatory requirements or controls. While the Group provides its products to third party businesses, the Directors anticipate that the Group's customers on production of the various products will be subject to certain regulatory controls in the relevant jurisdictions.

The independent auditors' reports in respect of the financial statements of the Company/Group for the three years ended 30 September 2022 are unqualified. However, the independent auditors' audit report on the Group's financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022 draws attention to a material uncertainty relating to going concern, which is extracted as follows and should be read in conjunction with the Group's financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022, and taking into account the fact that the material uncertainty was raised prior to the Placing and first tranche of Subscription on 14 April 2023, after which it has been addressed in full:

“Material uncertainty related to going concern

We draw attention to note 2(d) in the financial statements, which indicates that the group's and the parent company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the ability to secure additional funding through financing arrangements or the issue of equity. As stated in note 2(d) whilst the Directors are confident of raising sufficient funds in the timeframes required, these events or conditions, along with the other matters as set forth in note 2(d), indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the group and parent company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified of this matter.

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate. Our evaluation of the directors' assessment of the company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting included:

- Challenging the directors' forecasts prepared to assess the group's and parent company's ability to meet its financial obligations as they fall due for a period of at least 12 months from the dates of approval of the financial statements. We have assessed the reasonableness of the forecasts costs based on comparing them to previous years, current year management accounts and supporting evidence for certain costs. We have also considered the impact of sensitising the forecasted cash flows by increasing the estimated costs by 20% to reflect the risk of additional or unexpected costs being incurred. The forecasts and related sensitivities demonstrated that the group and parent company will require additional funding during first half of 2023 in order to meet its liabilities as and when they fall due.

- As disclosed in note 2(d), the group's cash position shows a balance of £1,061,529 as at 30 September 2022. The group's cost base has increased as a result of the acquisition of 3D Bio-Tissues Limited, due to the lack of revenue streams and increased cash burn rate the group and parent company are dependent on raising funds in the first half of 2023. We note that the group have successfully raised funds from issuing equity in the past but at the date of this report there are no legally binding agreements in place to cover a funding deficit in these scenarios.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.”

3. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Directors acknowledge the importance of high standards of corporate governance and intend, given the Company's size and the constitution of the Board, to comply with the principles set out in the QCA Code. The QCA Code sets out a standard of minimum best practice for small and mid-size quoted companies.

Upon Admission of the new Ordinary Shares, the Board will continue to comprise four Directors, two being Executive Directors and two being Non-Executive Directors, which reflects a blend of different experiences and backgrounds.

The QCA Code states that a company should have at least two independent non-executive directors. At Admission the Company will continue to have only one independent non-executive director being Mr Dennis Ow. The Board believes that the composition of the Board brings a desirable range of skills and experience in light of the Company's challenges and opportunities following Admission, while at the same time ensuring that no individual (or a small group of individuals) can dominate the Board's decision making. The Company will appraise the structure of the Board on an ongoing basis.

The Non-Executive Chairman is primarily responsible for the working of the Board and for assessing the individual contributions of members from the Board to ensure that:

- (a) their contribution is measurable, timely, relevant and effective;
- (b) they commit sufficient time to the business to fulfill their statutory and fiduciary duties;
- (c) where relevant, they maintain their independence;
- (d) they function collectively in a coherent and productive manner; and
- (e) they receive appropriate training to stay up to date and improve performance.

The Board intends to meet regularly to review, formulate and approve the Group's strategy, budgets, and corporate actions and oversee the Group's progress towards its goals. The Company has established an Audit Committee, a Remuneration Committee and a Nomination Committee, each with formally delegated duties and responsibilities and with written terms of reference.

The Company will continue to review its compliance with the recommendations of the QCA Code and report in its annual report and accounts and on its website where it complies and explain where it does not comply.

3.1 Audit Committee

The Audit Committee has the primary responsibility of monitoring the quality of internal controls to ensure that the financial performance of the Group is properly measured and reported on. It will receive and review reports from the Group's management and external auditors relating to the interim and annual accounts and the accounting and internal control systems in use throughout the Group. The Audit Committee will meet not less than three times in each financial year and will have unrestricted access to the Group's external auditors. The Audit Committee comprises Dennis Ow (as chairman) and Min Yang.

3.2 Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee reviews the performance of the Executive Director, Chairman of the Board and senior management of the Group and make recommendations to the Board on matters relating to their remuneration and terms of service. The Remuneration Committee also makes recommendations to the Board on proposals for the granting of share options and other equity incentives pursuant to any employee share option scheme or equity incentive plans in operation from time to time. The Remuneration Committee meets as and when necessary, but at least twice each year. In exercising this role, the Directors have regard to the recommendations put forward in the QCA Code and, where appropriate, the QCA Remuneration Committee Guide and associated guidance. The Remuneration Committee comprise Geoff Baker (as chairman) and Min Yang.

3.3 Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee leads the process for board appointments and makes recommendations to the Board. The Nomination Committee evaluates the balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge on the board and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. The Nomination Committee meets as and when necessary, but at least twice each year. The Nomination Committee comprises Geoff Baker (as chairman) and Dennis Ow.

3.4 Share Dealing Policy

The Company has adopted a share dealing policy, in conformity with the requirements of the Listing Rules and the Market Abuse Regulation, regulating trading and confidentiality of inside information for persons discharging managerial responsibility (“PDMRs”) and persons closely associated with them which contains provisions appropriate for a company whose shares are admitted to trading on the Official List. The Company intends to take all reasonable steps to ensure compliance by PDMRs and any relevant employees with the terms of its share dealing policy.

3.5 Dividend Policy

The primary purpose of the Fundraising was to provide the Group with growth capital to fund and accelerate the continued expansion and development of the business. Accordingly, the Directors do not intend that the Company will declare a dividend in the near term, but instead channel the available cash resources of the Group into funding its expansion. Thereafter, the Board intends to commence the payment of dividends only when it becomes commercially prudent to do so, having regard to the availability of distributable profits and the funds required to finance continuing future growth.

3.6 General Meeting

At the General Meeting, resolutions will be proposed for the allotment and issue of new Ordinary Shares in connection with the Additional Fundraising Securities and the Financial PR Shares as follows:

- (a) An ordinary resolution will be proposed to grant authority to the Directors to allot and issue shares in the Company and to grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares for the purposes of Section 551 of the Companies Act up to a maximum aggregate nominal amount of £398,759, calculated as follows:

This authority shall expire on the earlier of (i) 12 months from the date of the General Meeting and (ii) the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company.

PART V
TAXATION

Taxation in the United Kingdom

The following information is based on UK tax law and HM Revenue and Customs (“HMRC”) practice currently in force in the UK. Such law and practice (including, without limitation, rates of tax) is in principle subject to change at any time. The information that follows is for guidance purposes only. Any person who is in any doubt about his or her position should contact their professional adviser immediately.

1. Tax treatment of UK investors

The following information, which relates only to UK taxation, is applicable to persons who are resident in the UK and who beneficially own Ordinary Shares as investments and not as securities to be realised in the course of a trade. It is based on the law and practice currently in force in the UK. The information is not exhaustive and does not apply to potential investors:

- (a) who intend to acquire, or may acquire (either on their own or together with persons with whom they are connected or associated for tax purposes), more than 10 per cent., of any of the classes of shares in the Company; or
- (b) who intend to acquire Ordinary Shares as part of tax avoidance arrangements; or
- (c) who are in any doubt as to their taxation position.

Such Shareholders should consult their professional advisers without delay. Shareholders should note that tax law and interpretation can change and that, in particular, the levels, basis of and reliefs from taxation may change. Such changes may alter the benefits of investment in the Company.

Shareholders who are neither resident nor temporarily non-resident in the UK and who do not carry on a trade, profession or vocation through a branch, agency or permanent establishment in the UK with which the Ordinary Shares are connected, will not normally be liable to UK taxation on dividends paid by the Company or on capital gains arising on the sale or other disposal of Ordinary Shares. Such Shareholders should consult their own tax advisers concerning their tax liabilities.

(a) Dividends

Where the Company pays dividends, no UK withholding taxes are deducted at source. Shareholders who are resident in the UK for tax purposes will, depending on their circumstances, be liable to UK income tax or corporation tax on those dividends.

UK resident individual Shareholders who are domiciled in the UK, and who hold their Ordinary Shares as investments, will be subject to UK income tax on the amount of dividends received from the Company.

Dividend income received by UK tax resident individuals will have a £1,000 per annum dividend tax allowance. Dividend receipts in excess of £1,000 will be taxed at 8.75% for basic rate taxpayers, 33.75% for higher rate taxpayers, and 39.35% for additional rate taxpayers.

Shareholders who are subject to UK corporation tax should generally, and subject to certain anti-avoidance provisions, be able to claim exemption from UK corporation tax in respect of any dividend received but will not be entitled to claim relief in respect of any underlying tax.

(b) Disposals of Ordinary Shares

Any gain arising on the sale, redemption or other disposal of Ordinary Shares will be taxed at the time of such sale, redemption or disposal as a capital gain.

The rate of capital gains tax on disposal of Ordinary Shares by basic rate taxpayers is 10%, increasing to 20% for upper rate and additional rate taxpayers.

Subject to certain exemptions, the corporation tax rate applicable to taxable profits is currently 25% for profits in excess of £250,000. A small profits rate applies for companies with profits of £50,000 or less so that these companies pay corporation tax at 19%. Companies with profits between £50,000 and £250,000 pay tax at the main rate reduced by a marginal relief providing a gradual increase in the effective corporation tax rate.

(c) Further information for Shareholders subject to UK income tax and capital gains tax “Transactions in securities”

The attention of Shareholders (whether corporates or individuals) within the scope of UK taxation is drawn to the provisions set out in, respectively, Part 15 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 and Chapter 1 of Part 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007, which (in each case) give powers to HMRC to raise tax assessments so as to cancel “tax advantages” derived from certain prescribed “transactions in securities”.

2. Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax

No UK stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax will be payable on the allotment and issue of new Ordinary Shares in connection with the Additional Fundraising Securities and Financial PR Shares.

Most investors will purchase existing Ordinary Shares using the CREST paperless clearance system and these acquisitions will be subject to stamp duty reserve tax at 0.5%. Where Ordinary Shares are acquired using paper (i.e. non-electronic settlement), stamp duty will become payable at 0.5% if the purchase consideration exceeds £1,000.

The above comments are intended as a guide to the general stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax position and may not relate to persons such as charities, market makers, brokers, dealers, intermediaries and persons connected with depositary arrangements or clearance services to whom special rules apply.

5.2. The Articles of Association contain no specific restrictions on the Company's objects and therefore, in accordance with section 31(1) of the Companies Act, the Company's objects are unrestricted.

5.3. The Articles of Association contain, inter alia, provisions to the following effect:

5.3.1 Variation of Class Rights

5.3.1.1 Subject to the Companies Act, whenever the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class of shares in issue may (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) from time to time be varied or abrogated, whether or not the Company is being wound up, either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of such holders (but not otherwise).

5.3.1.2 The special rights conferred upon the holders of any shares or class of shares shall, unless otherwise provided by the Articles or the terms of issue of the shares concerned, be deemed not to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with them or subsequent to them.

5.3.2 Shares

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act:

5.3.2.1 and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares, any share may be issued with such rights or restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine, or in the absence of such determination, or so far as any such resolution does not make specific provision, as the Board may determine;

5.3.2.2 shares may be issued which are to be redeemed or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder on such terms and in such manner as the Board may determine;

5.3.2.3 the Company may purchase any of its own shares (including any redeemable shares); and

5.3.2.4 the directors may allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over, offer or otherwise deal with or dispose of shares in the company to such persons at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as they may determine. The directors may at any time after the allotment of any share, but before any person has been entered in the register as the holder, recognise a renunciation thereof by the allottee in favour of some other person and may accord to any allottee of a share a right to effect such renunciation upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the directors may think fit to impose.

5.3.3 Alteration of Capital

The Company may subject to the passing of a resolution authorising it to do so in accordance with the Companies Act: -

5.3.3.1 consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger nominal amount than its existing shares;

5.3.3.2 sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller nominal amount, provided that in the sub-division, consolidation or division, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each resulting share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which that share is derived;

and the resolution pursuant to which any share is sub-divided may determine that as between the resulting shares one or more of such shares may be given any preference or advantage or be subject to any restriction as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over the others or any other of such shares.

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve, any share premium account and any redenomination reserve in any way.

5.3.4 General Meetings

The Board may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, shall forthwith convene a general meeting. If there are not sufficient Directors capable of acting to call a general meeting, any Director may call a general meeting. If there is no Director able to act, any two members may call a general meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors.

5.3.5 Method of voting and demand for a poll

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands, or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll, a poll is demanded by: -

5.3.5.1 the chairman of the meeting; or

5.3.5.2 at least five members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote at the meeting; or

5.3.5.3 a member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares held as treasury shares); or

5.3.5.4 a member or members present in person or by proxy holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding any shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting which are held as treasury shares); or

5.3.5.5 any member present in person or by proxy in the case of a resolution to confer, vary, revoke or renew authority or approval for an off-market purchase by the Company of its own shares, and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.

5.3.6 Votes of members

Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to shares and the Articles of Association:

5.3.6.1 on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every member who (being an individual) is present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder.

5.3.6.2 on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote save that a proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if: -

(a) the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution; and

(b) the proxy has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it.

5.3.7 Proxies

All votes may be taken either personally or by proxy. A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that member and a person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way. A person appointed to act as a proxy needs not be a member of the Company.

5.3.8 Directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution of the Company, the number of Directors shall not be less than two.

5.3.9 Appointment and Retirement of Directors

Each Director shall retire from office and shall be eligible for reappointment at the third annual general meeting after the general meeting at which he was appointed or last reappointed. If the Company, at the meeting at which a Director retires under this Article, does not fill the vacancy the retiring Director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the reappointment of the Director is put to the meeting and lost.

5.3.10 Borrowing Powers

The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to guarantee, to indemnify, to mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the Company, to issue debentures and other securities and to give security, whether outright or as collateral security, for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

5.3.11 Dividends

Subject to the provisions of the Acts, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends in accordance with the respective rights of the members, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

Without prejudice to any rights attached to any shares, the Company or the Board may fix a date, or a particular time on a date, as the record date by reference to which a dividend will be declared or paid or a distribution, allotment or issue made, and that date may be before, on or after the date on which the dividend, distribution, allotment or issue is declared, paid or made. In the absence of a record date being fixed, entitlement to any dividend, distribution, allotment or issue shall be determined by reference to the date on which the dividend is declared or the distribution, allotment or issue is made.

5.3.12 Capitalisation of Profits

The Board may with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company: -

5.3.12.1 subject as subsequently provided in these Articles, resolve to capitalise all or any part of the profits of the Company to which this Article applies;

5.3.12.2 appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the members who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions and apply such sum on their behalf either: -

- (a) in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively; or
- (b) in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those members, or as they may direct, in those proportions;
or partly in one way and partly in the other;

5.3.12.3 in respect of any shares held as treasury shares, include, to the extent permitted by the Companies Act, the Company among the members entitled to the sum resolved to be capitalised notwithstanding that it is not entitled to any dividend in respect of such shares;

5.3.12.4 make such provision by the issue of fractional securities or by payment in cash or otherwise as it determines in the case of shares or debentures otherwise becoming distributable under this Article in fractions; and

5.3.12.5 authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid, of any shares or debentures to which they are entitled upon such capitalisation, any agreement made under such authority being binding on all such members.

5.3.13 Winding Up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Companies Act, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the members as he with the like sanction determines, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.
